

A handwritten signature in cursive script, reading "G. W. Plummer". The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned above the printed biographical text.

GEORGE W. PLUMMER, hotel man; (independent in politics); born September 4, 1870, in Ashe county, North Carolina; son of J. R. and Francis (Stamper) Plummer. He received his education in the public schools. In his early years he came west and engaged in ranching and railroading in Utah and Nevada. In the spring of 1895, he located in Rock Springs, Wyoming, and became the manager of the Ed Thorpe store. At the present time he is actively in the hotel business and conducts hotels at Encampment and Medicine Bow, and also the Capitol Cafe in Cheyenne. He took an active interest in the development of the Encampment mining district. He also served as a member of the Encampment town council. Mr. Plummer located in Cheyenne in 1912. Address: Cheyenne, Wyoming.